PENNSYLVANIA SOLDIERS OF THE REVOLUTION
ENTITLED TO DEPRECIATION PAY.

[The list of the "Soldiers of the Revolution," printed in the Pennsylvania Archives, Second Series, Vol. XIII. pp. 3-249, copied from the Depreciation Account books, lacks one important feature, the designation of the regiments and the arm of the service to which they were attached. The editor of the PENNSYLVANIA MAGAZINE has found in the Department of the Auditor-General, at Harrisburg, a number of pay-rolls on Depreciation Pay account, which supply this deficiency. These pay-rolls, however, contain only a few thousand names, but, should more of them be found, they will be prepared for publication. This valuable data will enable those making researches to identify with more certainty their ancestors who were in active service, whether in the Continental Line or the militia of the State.]
